Journey

The Power of the Father in dry, red soil.

The Power of the Father in dark, rumbling clouds.

The Power of the Father drawing me along paths unknown.

The Protection of the Son in the shade of the branches.

The Protection of the Son roll in.

The Protection of the Son when I stumble and fall.

The Peace of the Spirit in the stillness of the desert.

The Peace of the Spirit when I'm following the Way.

The Peace of the Spirit which passes all understanding.

The Power, Protection and Peace
of the Three in One,

Be with me this day and forever more.

Amen

Cry from a new land

The Lord is my Shepherd
I shall not want
He maketh me to lie down
by still waters.

Lord, I thank you that you surround me and provide for me.

Thank you for this place of peace and comfort.

You alone provide me with rest and restoration.

Forgive me that I don't always turn to you for my solace, my source of peace and guidance.

Thank you for staying with me,
no matter how far I wander.

Father God, help me to see your beauty in this new land.

Lead me to appreciate its stillness and peace,
it's hidden depths and resilience.

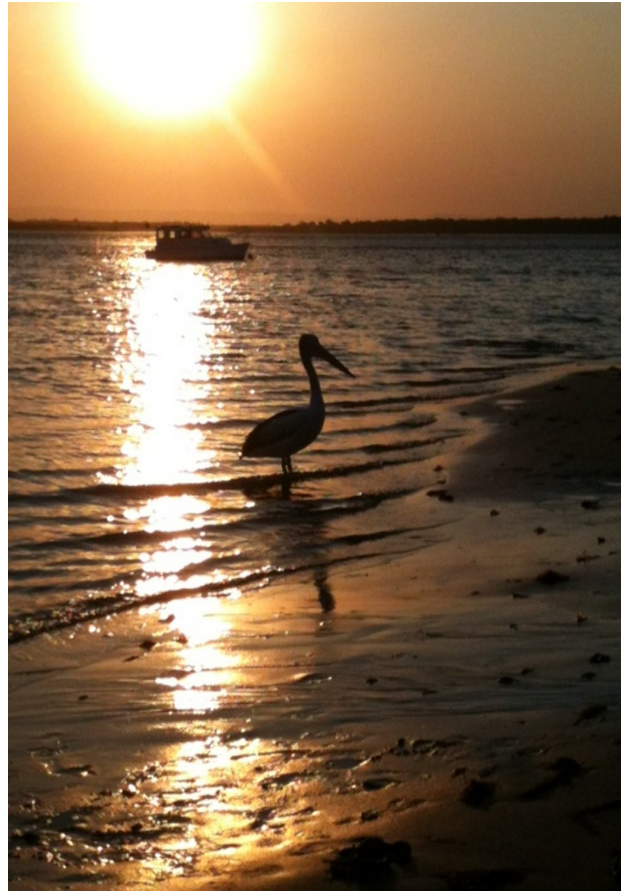

Guide me to make friends
with its animals and plants,
to understand their ways
and live in peace with its creatures.

Help me to find your peace, your inner peace,
that I may take the next step in my journey.

That I come from a place of power and strength, stillness and peace -
your Place.

I pray that when the time is right
you will lead me on to the next place, that I may journey with you-Forever safe in the knowledge that your Peace and Love are always with me.

Ceirán Stanfield.

Endless Peace

Deep Peace of the Gentle Light to you,
Surround you in warmth and Love.

Deep Peace of the Endless Ocean Rhythm to you Gather you in Love's embrace.

Deep Peace of the Pelican heartbeat to you Invite you into Deep Trust.

Peace to you
Peace to you
Peace to you.

Heather Eckersley

maleney peace

Peace of the still water reflecting images to you.

The Desert Daisy

The Peace of your space on the earth to you,
The Peace of your perfect symmetry to you.
The Peace of your golden centre to you.
Peace to you
Peace to you
Peace to you.

Peace of the Setting Sun

Praise God,
for my own direct line to you in the setting sun.
For all the glory of the way.
For the palm tree
and the bark canoe,
that bring to mind
the dear people,
who were living in this land
before we ever came.
Who extend to us
the honour of sharing in their Dreaming.

Peace of the setting sun to you.
Peace of the path of Peace to you
Peace of God which passeth all understanding to you.
Peace to you
Peace to you
Peace to you.

Helen Menzies.

Streams in the Desert

Peace of green in desert barren

Peace of growth in drought so bare

Peace of shade in harshest sunlight-

Our great God who all has made.

Lead us by your streams of water

Into gullies, brown and wide;

Puddles deep flow into rivers -

God revive us with your Love.

Jo Vandersee

God of Coolibahs, knarled and shady.

God of gullies, brown and still.

God of water-holes, deep and hidden-

May we seek your shade and cool;

May we rest on your green creek banks;

May we know your peace and love.

May the Trinity enfold us-

God eternal, Three in One. Amen

Jo Vandersee

Eternal Strength

Eternal life giving God,
the beauty of the weathered rocks is mine.
Jesus, your redemptive strength brings life from hard places.
Holy Spirit your power brings life and hope to me.
For all eternity
for all of my tomorrows
for all eternity.

Marianne

Trust

Trust in me," I hear you say
As I come to you in the dawning of the Day.
"Trust in me," I hear you say
As your footsteps guide me along the way.
"Come as One in the gentle peace of who I am.
Trust that my arms, powerful and strong,
can carry you all the way.
For I am always there in the brilliance of the Day.
Trust I sit beside you in the darkness of the Night.
Trust that my Love is enough
as I hold you tight"

Praise to the Lord
at the dawning of the Day.
"Trust, dear one, in all I have to say-TRUST"
